

Private Getaways for Couples

I invite you to take a journey into a beautiful wellspring of love and intimacy!

Devi travels around the globe to assist couples to deepen and rejuvenate their love. She teaches techniques in ancient tantric sacred sexuality that increase intimacy, love and sexual attraction, as well as expand pleasure and awaken orgasm. She assists couples to release trauma, old patterns, limiting belief systems and fears that prevent the relationship from growing and thriving.

“Frank and I want to thank you for an incredible experience! The techniques you taught us have been invaluable. We now know that, even though we’re getting up there in years, we can still have the love and romance of our youth. Our only regret is that we didn’t start working with you years ago so we could have benefited from your skills before now.” Frank & Evelyn, Retired

Your Private Love Getaway

Devi will meet you in your home town or favorite vacation spot. Each day she spends with you, she will teach you the art of sacred sexuality, instruct you through hands-on practices, guide you in meditation and energy techniques and offer healing and intuitive guidance. You will also receive “home play” activities to practice on your own in the evenings so you can better integrate the techniques taught each day. Each Private Getaway is tailored to suit a couple’s individual needs and goals.
